Local Gossip

Dates for the Lancaster fair are July 18, 19 and 20.

The Officers of the Garrard Co Fair Association are working like Turks, and will offer the best show ever given in Lancaster.

Lancaster Knights Templar will leave Tuesday morning for the Conclave at Paris. They will spend several days enjoying the festivities.

Another excursion to Cincinnati will be run Sunday. Fare $1.50 round trip. Train leaves Lancaster about 5 a m., returning leaves Cincinnati at 8:30, night.

The engraved invitations ordered by this office for the Graded School graduates have been highly complimented by those who have seen them. We are thoroughly equipped for ordering this work, and our prices cannot be equaled.

Special Notice.

If you wish engraved work, please remember that it takes time to have this class of work done, and don't expect to get it as quickly as you can have printing done. Most people understand this, but there are some who do not consider the tedious process required.

Finally Landed.

One of the tiger negroes, who brought in a jug of buttermilk to deceive Chief Beazley, and who threatened to sue the town for false imprisonment, was caught "with wool in his teeth" Saturday and placed on the rock pile for 151 days.

Killing the Dogs.

Persuant to instructions from the City Council, Officers Beazley and Herron have been killing dogs upon which the tax is not paid, and many a canine has been dispatched during the week. There are numberless worthless curs in Lancaster, and the thinning out is a good move.

Hurt in Mt. Sterling.

A telegram from Mt. Sterling to the Courier Journal, last Friday said: Leon Austin, aged about thirty seven, of Lancaster, was run over by a traction engine a few miles from this city this evening, and seriously, if not fatally injured. Mr Austin got down from the engine and was in front of it when it started. In attempting to get out of the way he stumbled and two of wheels passed over his left side. His left foot was crushed to a jelly and his side was mashed and body badly bruised.
He was brought to this city. His little son witnessed the accident.
Mr Austin was brought to his home in this city, and is improving slowly.

Big Land Sale.

John Wagers sold to Sweeney Morgan 180 acres of land, lying near Point Levell, for $12,000. This is about the average price being paid for land in that section.

G D Smiley, who resided in Garrard for many years, was in the Mexican war and served in the Confederate army, died at Birmingham last week and was buried at Lexington, Ky.
He married a daughter of Wm Jones, of Buckeye, and is well remembered by older citizens.

A Fine Lecture.

The lecture given at the Presbyterian church by Dr Hinitz, Friday night, was greatly enjoyed by the large audience present. Dr Hinitz is one of the most highly-educated men in the United States, a fine speaker and a gentleman in whose presence it is a pleasure to be. He is president of Central University, the leading institution for learning in the whole South.

Doing Good Work.

Mr Luther Herron, who was sworn in as assistant to Chief of Police Beaz-ley, is doing splendid work, and the docket of the police court will show that he is striking at the root of the evil in Lancaster. Mr Herron is a modest, clever man, who is attending strictly to his business and making many friends among the better element of our citizens.

Colored Fair.

George Moran, one of the most honorable, upright and reliable colored men in this section of the state, tells The Record the colored people of Garrard county will hold a three-days' fair, beginning August 2nd. Good premiums will be offered, a fine band secured and the best fair the colored people have ever held will be given.
With such men at the head, there is no doubt of success.

Stores to Close.

Under an agreement, all the dry goods stores will close at seven o'clock and the groceries at half past seven each evening except Saturday. The plan was put into operation Monday.
This is a wise move, as the people have no right to expect business men and clerks to work at night. It is unreasonable and unjust and no reasonable person expects it. The only place where the public thinks a man must remain for twenty four hours a day, not taking time to eat his meals, is a printing office.

A Good Official.

The Record wishes to call the attention of the town tax payers to the splendid work being done by the city attorney, Mr R. L. Davidson. He is a splendid lawyer, and, notwithstanding the fact that the salary of the office is a mere pittance, he puts as much interest in his work as if he received the same pay as common wealth's attorney. Almost every case brought to this court is defended by a good lawyer, and in many cases witnesses crawl when placed on the stand, but Mr Davidson puts forth his best efforts and gets a conviction.
The people of the town owe him a debt of gratitude.

Accident at Railroad Crossing.

Saturday afternoon, as two young men, named Payne and Chadwell, were leaving town, they came near being struck by No 29, the South-bound passenger train, at the crossing on Richmond street. The crossing is on a curve, and they were almost on the track when the engineer saw them.
The horse was struck and badly injured, the occupants thrown out and the vehicle damaged. Had they been a few feet further all would have been killed.
The engineer claims to have given the usual signal, but the parties say they did not hear it. This is the first accident to happen at this crossing. With six daily trains on this road, people should be very cautious in approaching the crossings.

Graded School Exercises.

The examinations are in progress at the Graded Schools this week, and final dismissal comes to day. The marks of all have been exceptionally good, and the teachers have every reason to feel proud of their work.
Sunday evening, at 7:45, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Dr. C. F. Evans, of Carlisle, in the Methodist church. Tuesday evening, at 8:10, the commencement exercises will be held in the Christian church.
As this issue of The Record is being printed, the class day exercises are being held at the school buildings. The music being furnished during the closing exercises by the pupils of Mrs.
Belle Burnside, is exceptionally fine and has been highly complimented.

A Former Lancaster Man.

We had a most pleasant call yesterday from Dr W Burnside, of Barbours-ville, who, with his wife, has been visiting her mother, Mrs Patsy Kinnaird. For many years, Dr Burnside ran the drug store at the present Mc-Roberts stand, in this city, and older citizens remember with much pleasure the good old times in Lancaster about then. Happy were the days when a fellow could sit in the old drug store corner and listen to such men as Henry Bruce, John S Gill, Dr Dave Logan, Major Jim Burnside, W C Price, Leslie McMurtry and other spin out yarns about Dix river and the Hanging Fork.
Dr Burnside has been practicing medicine in Barboursville for almost twenty years, and has been very successful.

If some responsible and energetic person will keep first-class ice cream during the summer, he will make good money, as many housekeepers will buy it if they know it is all right. Here's a chance for some energetic party.

Mr John McGee, the coal and lumber man, is confined to his room by a wound from a rusty nail, which he stuck in his foot. He is much improved today and his many friends are glad no serious trouble will result.

The U. D. C.

The U D C held its regular meeting with Mrs J H Royston Monday. We had a delightful, historic and entertaining meeting. Quite a number of our members were present. We were pleased to add the names of two new members to our Chapter. May 26th is the day appointed by our Chapter to decorate the graves of our departed veterans. The Chapter would be glad to know of any one who has Confederate friends buried in our Cemetery.
We will have a speaker for this occasion. All who are interested are cordially invited to be present and bring flowers. We invite all old veterans.

Editor Pilcher Shoots Man.

Louis Pilcher, who will be well-remembered by many people in this section, shot and badly wounded an ex-policeman named Peel, in Nicholasville Saturday. Mr Pilcher has just started a new paper, and in the first issue printed something regarding the city's affairs in which Peel was said to be connected. The latter went to the newspaper office and attacked the editor, Peel being shot by the editor before the fight ended. The wound will not prove fatal. Older citizens of Lancaster remember Mr Pilcher conducting, with Capt Sam M Boone, the greatest temperance meeting in Lancaster ever held in central Kentucky.

A Quiet Sunday.

Last Sunday was the most quiet, and "driest" Lancaster has ever experienced. The officers have stamped out the tigers and those accustomed to desecrating the Sabbath were "out of business," so to speak. One or two colored men showed the effects of too much liquor and were promptly landed in jail. It was impossible to get a drink anywhere, and, with the dust already a foot deep on the streets, the time passed very much as it does in a country grave yard.
The law is being enforced, and if any one has the idea that "prohibition does not prohibit," let him go in search for an eye-opener in Lancaster.
Now, that the question of whiskey-selling is settled, let's see how many will put a shoulder to the wheel and help build up the town.

Was Well-Known Here.

Baristown, N. J. Times.—Mr Sereno Dickerman died on Tuesday night of lung trouble, after an illness of several weeks, at his home in Delaware.
Mr Dickerman was 78 years old, having been born in New Haven, Conn., on June 15, 1828. His father was Jason Dickerman and his mother Lucretia Talmage. He led an active life in various parts of the United States. In 1854 he went to California and in 1861 he located in Kentucky, and was there during the Civil War. He married Mrs Alicia Barber Kirkcuff in 1876. They returned to Delaware in November 1903, where he resided at the time of his death. He was a man of kind, and genial disposition and to know him was to become his friend. Although he lived among us but a few years his familiar presence will be greatly missed by many friends in our village. His wife and one sister survive him.

The Railway Rate Bill.

As a result of the settlement of the perplexing question of court review in railroad rate debate in the Senate, by acceptance of the Allison amendment specifically conferring jurisdiction on the circuit courts in rate cases, the upper body indulged in a little relaxation. Parliamentary rules were forgotten and the fifteen minute limit for all speeches cheerfully and consistently transgressed. The fact of the matter is that every one felt so pleased at the settlement of the court review question and the final formulation of a satisfactory measure, that minor amendments were regarded as of considerably less relative importance. The President has come out with his characteristic frankness in explaining his acceptance of the Allison amendment, pointing out that he has always realized the necessity of court review, a fact borne out by his speech at Raleigh and at other places.
"No genuine friend of the Hepburn bill can object to the amendment without stultifying himself," says the President. The Allison amendment was accepted as necessary to save the bill from unconstitutionality, for it has been shown that an attempt to trench on the powers of the courts would render the bill void. In fine, a satisfactory measure has been achieved, the President is pleased, and everybody is happy.

NEW USE FOR HEMP.

The hemp breaking machine, which has been in operation in this county for some months, was this week shipped to the factory in Chicago, the tests for which it was being used having proven satisfactory far beyond the expectations of the inventors. The Record has had little to say about the machine this season for the reason that the inventors were working on a discovery which will mean much to the hempraisers. It is this: As stated last year, the machine was invented for the purpose of breaking the regularly retted hemp, which was a complete success. The inventors had worked in the field but a short time when they discovered that the machine would break successfully hemp which was only half retted, and, readily recognizing the importance of this feature, set to work to construct the machine substantial enough to handle the tougher article. In this they met with many obstacles, but before shipping the machine, figured out the points needed. The half-retted hemp was successfully broken, it contained much less tow than the hand-broken, and samples were sent to leading manufacturers, among them the Linen Thread Co., of Patterson, N J. All reported that they would much prefer the new article, and the company mentioned wrote that they would take all the inventors could send them and that at an advanced price.

This being the case, the next crop can be broken and sold early in the fall, and the farmer will have his money, his land cleared and the crop off his hands in early winter instead of having to wait until the next spring.
Several large twine concerns are testing the fiber, and if it answers their purpose (and there is no doubt but what it will) it means about $12,500,000 to $14,000,000 that will go to American instead of foreign fibers. This will open an entirely new market for hemp fiber where hemp fiber has never been used before.

The machine, under these improvements, will be ready for next season, and a large factory is ready to begin the work as soon as this machine is received in Chicago.

Picnic at Mt. Olivet.

In our notice of the picnic to be given at Mt. Olivet an error in the date was made. It should have been May 24th instead of 26th. Mr Fanning the Irish orator of great fame, will be present and make a speech. The picnic is given under the auspices of the Prohibition Alliance, and everybody is cordially invited to be there. Dinner on the ground.

Much has been said in reference to recent killings here, and much that has been said at other places is untrue. The idea has gone abroad that our people are reckless and have no regard for the law. We had as well say that one case of typhoid fever infects the entire community, when often there are only a few victims, the cause is removed, and the general health of the community remains good. This is true of the recent killings here. They were bad enough, but the excitement has, in a measure, subsided and the matter is now up to the courts. In justice to our people we can safely assert that no more quiet, peaceable, cultured, God loving people live on earth. The expressions of indignation at the time prove that a feeling in favor of law and order predominates. For a long time prior to these unfortunate events peace and prosperity reigned, and the return of those happy conditions follows inevitably. A reactionary wave will control in this as in other matters. Other towns and communities have had the same experience and good schools, churches and the enforcement of the law have eradicated an inclination to continue such violations.

A salient feature exists in the fact that there is nothing in either case to bring about a feud. Families are not arrayed against each other, and it is safe to say that no more blood will be shed. So let people still rely on their rich harvests and their many advantages from a continuance of that high type of civilization which they always have and always will enjoy.

Letter from Capt. Sam Boone.

National Military Home, O, May 9 Louis Landram, Lancaster.

My Dear Friend:—As a matter of news, I communicate the fact that on yesterday I attended the funeral of Charles C Carson, late of the 1st Ky. Cavalry, and, I think, born and raised in Lancaster near there. He was laid down to his final sleep in the honors of war. The coffin was placed on a caisson drawn by four white horses, and the flag of his country gracefully draped around the casket. A band of twenty-eight members headed the cortege, discoursing solemn funeral dirges. Then came the firing squad, composed of a file of eight men in full dress uniform, and these were followed by a full company of soldiers wearing dress coats, and white gloves. After the attending minister had performed his part at the grave, concluding with "Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust," the squad then fired three volleys over the grave, and the bugler in the distance sounded "taps," "lights out."

I felt that this bit of news might meet the eye of some of his old Kentucky relatives and friends who knew him in early life. This is the largest and finest Military Home in the world; at present there are five thousand old soldiers here, and these are passing away (now) at the rate of two per day. That means that two men die every day in the five thousand, making seven hundred and thirty during the year. Very few are here now under 65 years of age, except Spanish-American soldiers. In ten or fifteen years, the soldiers who participated in the war of the rebellion will all have crossed over.

There is no more beautiful spot in United States than this, and I have often wondered why it is that so few Kentuckians visited the home. The grounds are beautifully laid out and ornamented, the buildings fine and imposing, indeed it is simply the best regulated little city in the United States. Come some time to see us.

Yours truly,

Sam M. Boone.

Old But Interesting.

Hon R H Tomlinson unearthed the following from the memoirs of the late Judge George Robertson:

At a barbecue, near Lancaster, on the Fourth of July, 1827, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by a large company assembled from different neighborhoods in the county of Garrard:

Resolved, that as a testimony of confidence of the people of Garrard county in the patriotism, talents and integrity of their distinguished countryman, Henry Clay, he is invited to a public dinner to be given him at Lancaster at such a time as may be most convenient to him.

Resolved, that George Robertson, John Yantis, Elijah Hiatt, Robert Mcconnell, William B Parron, Thomas Kennedy, Thomas Millan, Simeon H Anderson, John Rout, Danell O'Bant non, John Faulkner and John B Jennings be appointed a committee to communicate to Mr Clay the desire of the people of Garrard to welcome him to their hospitality in their own country.

Be a Booster.

"Boosting" is a slang word that fits admirably into American speech. There is no other that quite convey the meaning. The word "jolly" is another bit of colloquism useful in its way. But there is a wide difference between a jolly and a boost. To jolly is to flatter. To boost is to put forth a sincere effort. The jollies uses his lips only. The booster acts from the heart. The latter is sincere. He believes, therefore he boosts. He has a good reason for boosting. That which he boosts deserves to be boosted.

Take the man who boosts his town. It is the center of the universe to him. His property is there. His home. His family. His future. Even his grave. He boosts his town, and because it is his town, and because he believes it is worth boosting.

He is an admirable fellow, the booster.

Sometimes he may appear to be a "knocker." The knocker is the opposite of the booster. He knocks because he is a booster. He wants better government. He knocks in order that he may boost. When things are put right he begins to boost again.

One of the beauties about boosting your community, for instance is the reaction of it. When you boost your town you boost yourself. And boosting makes the booster happy.

A newspaper writer says boosting is the sole of work. That is a fine definition. Work, effort of any sort, without enthusiasm, is but a treadmill, a dreary round of common place. There is no sole in it. Work without sole in it is drudgery.

Be a booster. Put sole into effort. And thus every boost in behalf of your town, or your church, or your cause—what ever it may be—will become a constant series of happy accomplishments.

Lancaster To Have A New Union Depot.

Preparations Under Way, and the Opening will be June 1st.

The Methodist church will give a real up to date Union Depot June 1st. There will be about 40 people in the cast who will represent the many different types of character that are seen in any city union station. There will be the train caller, ticket agent, newsboys, bootblacks, the funny old lady with her bundles and band box, who tells her troubles to all who will listen; rubes, hoboes, nuds, drummers, bridal parties, emigrants and every character you can think of, each with their appropriate dialogue. There will be the prima dona with her opera troupe, who will give a concert in the Depot for sweet charity's sake. Altogether it will be one of the most interesting and amusing entertainments ever given in Lancaster.

BRUYANTSVILLE.

Mr R H Pettus, of Somerset, spent several days here recently.

Mr C C Becker was in Cincinnati last week on business.

Miss Carrie Boulden, of Nicholasville, has been the guest of the Misses Boner.

Mrs Anna Kav Jenkins returned home Saturday after a short stay in Louisville.

Mrs William Combs and Miss Emma Munday, of Jessamine, visited Mrs W L Glass Monday.

Mrs Eliza Ballard entertained a few of her friends at dinner Tuesday.

Mrs Ed Aldrich, of Covington visited Mrs A T Christopher last week.

Mr and Mrs Raymond Haselden, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs Sam Haselden.

Mr and Mrs George Avery, of Junction City, visited Mr and Mrs Logan Burke last week.

It is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by R E McRoberts the reliable druggist at Lancaster. 1m

A man's best thoughts seldom find utterance.

Fortunate Misadventures.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong to day. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using Dr. King's New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by R. E. McRoberts Druggist. 50c and $1 Trial bottle free. 1m

The Great Irish Orator.

Mr M J Fanning, the great Irish orator, will be in Lancaster May 29, at the court house, 7:30 p. m. Mr Fanning is an orator of national fame, and has accomplished a world of good for the cause of temperance. No admission fee will be charged—everybody cordially invited. You should hear this great orator, and his talks are different from the usual cut-and-dried temperance lecture, and, while you will be given a good talk on that all-important subject, yet there is so much wit injected that you will enjoy every word. Remember the date May 29.

Scolastica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr J B Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle effected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25 cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain? For sale by R. E. McRoberts the reliable druggist at Lancaster.

NINA.

Rev Mr Foley filled his appointment at Freedom last Sunday.

Uncle Nick Ross, one of our oldest neighbors is visiting his daughter Mrs Joe Ross.

Mr and Mrs J R Henry were here Sunday visiting their daughter Mrs Thomas Hill.

The Sunday School at Freedom is progressing fine with brother John H Prewitt as superintendent.

On next Sunday, at 11 a m professor J B Secrest, of Kirksville college will deliver a lecture at Freedom church. Everybody invited.

George Prewitt near here located a gang of wild geese on the farm of A S Wheeler and went with his gun for them. As usual they flew away. He found five eggs and set them. Four hatched. He has been offered $100 each for his geese, but would not take it.

Not as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by R E McRoberts the reliable druggist at Lancaster.

M DUNN, Auct.

King Bro's.

NABOTH, Jr., is a rich red bay, six years old and full 16 hands high, weighs 1255 pounds, and is a horse of wonderful beauty, having a long, rangy neck and carrying a fine tail. He is a perfect gelding with superb all round action and like all sons of old Naboth he has great natural speed in the gallop and a greater reaching action can not be found in the State of Kentucky. He has been a dealer in fancy horses for 10 years, furnishing them for all the markets in the country and I am anxious to encourage the breeders of horses to continue to raise better on as is generally known there is a scarcity of good horses, and those suitable for the Eastern market bring fancy prices. If the breeders would raise "Number one" horses they must take care to raise the mares to the right kind of sires. Naboth, Jr., is a horse that will produce that type of horses that the market demands, and for which the public is willing to pay high prices. I purchased this great young stallion at a fancy price because he has size, style, action, beauty and breeding.

If the breeder like you can get the right kind of horses by breeding to Naboth, Jr. You will note that this Stallion has the blood of Old Naboth, Hambleton 10, Old Messenger Chief, Red Wilkes, George Wilkes, Manbrine Chief, Pilot Jr and Harry Clay.

PEDIGREE.

By Naboth, 1805 2-10-34. He by Walsingham, 2164, sire of Latins 3-19-34 and several others he list. Walsingham by George Wilkes.

Old Naboth's first dam, Tinsel by Messenger Derock 166, son of Hambleton 10.

Second dam, Rena, sister to James Howell, Jr., by Hambleton 10. Third dam, Jessie Baye by Harry Clay 65.

Old Naboth's 2nd dam, by Liberty, son of James, by American Elites.

Naboth, Jr.'s first dam by Messenger Chief, Jr. by Old Messenger Chief. Second dam by C. Davis, by Red Wilkes, Third dam Thoroughbred.

Naboth, Jr. will be kept during the season of 1895 at my stable in Lancaster, Ky., and will be permitted to serve mares at a very low price $15.00 per mare a living colic. I am prepared to pay the owner of the mare at reasonable prices but no responsibility assumed for accident or escapes of stock committed to my care.
